Villas Complex
in Triantaros
Tinos

Located in the heart of the traditional village of Triantaros in Tinos, the complex basks in the magnificence of the steep topography and the panoramic view that the site offers. Triantaros Villas aspire to be a contemporary twist to the longstanding traditional Cycladic Architecture, with the direct reference to the genius loci of Tinos, both in external morphology and in interior design.

The essence of local space, everyday life, and culture are translated into an architectural concept that is inviting for the user and provides a rewarding sensory experience.

The “easy living” aesthetics of the interior avoids the extravagant embellishment and aims for simplicity in all its elegance and timelessness.
